

What's your chance of getting success?

Since we started, we've had several couples that have been married after being introduced in this concept. Some of the couples currently help us in various aspects of the program. We provide a opportunity for potential to connect and meet, the success is based on the attendees taking advantage of meeting a large number of people in one place and ongoing opportunity to connect with them.

When can I receive the book of all the candidates?

The book will be given on Saturday to all the attendees. They have to sign confidentiality agreement. We highly encourage attendance, so candidates can meet face to face. If Candidate, do not attend the convention no book will be mailed to you. Only online secure access will be provided.

What kind of program planned on Saturday?

The candidates are free to make their connections. We may have volunteers to assist. Candidate may prepare their introduction speech and we may give them opportunity. We have appetizer and lunch planned for all the candidates and guest to allow you to talk to any individual that you have more interest in. This is a buffet style sit down lunch. We may arrange DJ with some romantic songs and light entertainment.

Saturday morning 8:45 am will begin with breakfast. After breakfast, the candidate will go to their assigned tables. The program will begin with introductions at the table. Once their own table introductions are done, they will rotate through other tables and will have introductions with the other candidates. After this, they will have a lunch break. They will have one-on-one introductions before/after lunch. Please have candidates prepare a few points for them to speak about. The candidates should prepare, not mandatory, a one-minute introduction about himself or herself. Introduction topics could include: Name, Age, Work, Hobbies, Likes, Sports, Books, Movies, Future goals/plans. Selected questions will be provided.

Will there be any alcohol at the convention?

We do not serve alcohol at any of our conventions. Inside the convention hall, all drinks are non-alcoholic, and all food is vegetarian. Any intoxication at the event, will not be allowed.

What if I don't register and, can I just come on Saturday?

We encourage everyone to register before deadline to attend event. Since event is structured differently. Registration is a great way to get us organize for you and give professional environment. Printing your information on booklet giving you maximum benefits. We will not give any booklet if you just showed up at the event as it will be printed with limited quantity only. However, You will be provided secure access to website for 30 days only. We reserve rights to refuse from attending event if it is not registered.

What does the registration fee include?

The fee $25 includes printing of candidate information and we will provide one booklet per candidate who attend this event (Attendance $50 separate from registration fee). Candidate must sign confidentiality agreement in order to get this booklet in person. Photo ID required to show at the event and name must match to Photo ID.

Can parents/other family members come?

We understand the desire for parents to want to accompany their candidates. We will provide instructions based on program schedule.

Is everyone from GTA?

Our convention is open to all candidates from the Canada, USA and abroad.

What's the average age of the candidate?

We have candidates prefer ranging from 22 – 40 however, not limited as every community potential candidate should get equal opportunity.

How many candidates are there? How many boys/girls are registered?

We try to limit our convention to 200 participants. Although, we can't determine that until the registration process is closed.

What to wear?

Suggested dress is Indian Attire or Business Casual or Indian (Business casual includes khaki pants, dress pants, polo shirts, shirts, skirts, dresses, Punjabi dress, etc.)

Please no shorts, spaghetti straps, flip-flops, or T-shirts.

What happens after registration?

As the convention approaches, you will be assigned a table coordinator and he or she will contact you. They will be available to answer any of your questions prior to the convention and at the convention. They will be your guide throughout the whole process.

How many and what type of people will attend?

The attendees who are interested to find their soul mate from Gujarat's family - from all over the Canada, USA and Aboard. Our expectations are more than 200. However, we can finalize number as we approach the event date.